It is your responsibility to pay any copays, coinsurance or deductible related to any non-essential health benefit despite any participation in a federal or state government run program that offers subsidies or premium assistance. Payments related to non-essential health benefits will not count toward the maximum out of pocket benefit.

Wellness Programs; Disease or Case Management Programs; Other Programs $25 to $250

The benefit available for participation in a wellness program, a disease or case management program or another program will usually be in the form of a credit added to a debit card we issue to the member and, depending on the particular program, is usually between $25 and $250. Such credits may be one-time rewards, available periodically or related to specific requirements under a particular program. Discounts also may be available for participating in a program. You may obtain information regarding the available programs, the requirements for participation in each program and the benefits available for participating in a particular program by visiting our website at http://ambetter.ambetterofarkansas.com/ or by contacting Member Services by telephone at 1-877-617-0390.
